

Presenting
Monster Mash VI
 “The Camporee you will never forget”
 (if you Survive)
 October 15,16,17 – 2010

Those who survived last year's Monster Mash dare you to try to stay the weekend

We will have a site-decorating contest. A great troop prize (TBA) will be awarded for the best site. If you attended last year, you already have the idea.

Saturday Morning will consist of many different Patrol contests.

- Be sure to bring your catapult, following the rules

Afternoon events will be a “free-for-all” type atmosphere with merit badges, rifle range, etc.

- Cauldron cooking (Dutch Oven Chili contest)
- Crypt Prowl (Site Decoration Judging)
- Haunted Corral (Site to earn Toten-chip, Whittling-chip for WeBeLoS)
- The silver bullet (Rifle Range)
- Flaming Arrow (Archery)
- Merit Badge Classes TBA

Jamboree On The Air (JOTA) will be held at the camp so scouts will have the opportunity to talk with other scouts around the world.

Register early. We are trying to keep the cost low, so early registrants will get the best deal!

Cost is as follows:

- ❖ Register by September 30th - $10.00 per scout/leader (Reasonable)
- ❖ Come to the Camporee unregistered - $15.00 per scout/leader (Boo-Hoo, I think I will pre-register next year!!!)

Evening Events:

- ❖ Witches Brew Dinner (Pot Luck Dinner – Each unit brings a dish to pass that will feed 30-40 people)
- ❖ Catacomb Crawl (Haunted Hike to the bonfire) and costume contest
- ❖ Carnage fire (Bonfire - each unit provides a skit or song)
